The court can order that you pay part of your earnings or other income to your trustee if your income is more than you need to live on. The order is known as an Income Payments Order and is made under section 310 of the Insolvency Act 1986. Alternatively you can enter into a voluntary arrangement with the Official Receiver or trustee called an Income Payments Agreement under section 310A of the Insolvency Act 1986.

You must answer the following questions about your income and outgoings and you may be asked to provide your wage slips or salary statements and bills such as gas or electricity to support your answers. This will enable a decision to be made as to whether an Income Payments Order or an Income Payments Agreement is appropriate.

The court will not make an Income Payments Order, neither would an Income Payments Agreement be agreed, that would leave you too little income to meet the reasonable domestic needs of you and your family.

If an Income Payments Order or an Income Payments Agreement is made against you, the payments will usually stop after 3 years.

If your income increases while you are bankrupt, you must inform your trustee of the increase within 21 days.
